Terms and Conditions for Laundry and Ironing Services

Collection/delivery times

You are responsible for making suitable arrangements to arrange your collection and receive your delivery and giving us appropriate instructions. In the event that your delivery is damaged or lost after being handed over to yourself or delegated person, we do not accept liability. We reserve the right to refuse to accept orders from any customer; considerations of collection/delivery problems may give rise to such a refusal.

We reserve the right to add a reasonable re-delivery charge should you not be in to receive your delivery at the pre arranged time.

Insurance policy

Every possible care will be taken when washing the garments. However, it is the client's responsibility to separate the washing, and to highlight specific cleaning instructions for the care of the garments. No responsibility will be accepted for any shrinkage or colour run or fade.

Leather items, buttons, buckles beading and any other type of decoration is processed entirely at owners risk.

Our 'goods in transit' insurance policy covers us for any unforeseen circumstances whilst collecting or returning your order.

We shall not be liable for any delay in or failure to perform any of our obligations if the delay or failure is caused by circumstances beyond our reasonable control including, without limit, difficulties or failures of our suppliers or machinery malfunction.

A person who is not a party to these Terms and Conditions shall have no right under the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of these Terms and Conditions but this shall not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.
